

Curriculum Title:
Shapes In Art and Repeating Patterns

Arts Organization: Taft Museum of Art

School: Oakdale
Grade: 2

Academic and Classroom Goals:
Each student will be able to use a repeating pattern to decorate name tag and folder, Each student will recognize shapes in portrait and landscape reproductions
Students will learn to recognize patterns with numbers by stand up sit down exercise using numbers 1-2-3.

Arts Content Goals:
Each student will be able to create art by decorating their name tags and folders

Overview:
We are preparing the students to look at art in order to prepare them for their first visit to the Taft museum of Art.

Research Question:
Can you find the shapes within these paintings?

Brief Step by Step Art Integrated Activities including date/goals:
The date of the presentation is Monday, October 11 from 10:00-11:00

The goals are stated above.

Introduction. Introduce ourselves. The Taft Museum is an art museum as well as a home. We will show the reproduction if the Taft Museum of Art, and picture os Charlie and Annie Taft. It is a place where collections are displayed. Do you collect anything? How do you display it?

Ask the students what shapes that they know. What shapes can you find in these pictures. "Annie Taft", "Charlie Taft", "Gray Day In Holland", "At the Piano", and "The Ferryboat at Bonnières".

Talk about repeating patterns Children will number 1-2-3, and children will stand up and sit down.

Students will decorate name tags of different shapes and funpack folders

Needed supplies: Reproductions: Taft Museum of Art
"Annie Taft"
"Charlie Taft"
"At The Piano"
"The Ferry at Bonnières"
"Gray In Holland"

Cathy will pick up supplies on Thursday, October 7. Please include name tags and folders for 25 students. Thank you!!!

Extended Activity Designed by Teaching Artist – Taught by Classroom Teacher

Field Research from Sources Outside the School:

Assessment used for this Unit:

Reflections from Teaching Artist, Teachers, Students and Parents:

Authors (Teaching Artist and Teacher)
Cathy Schloss And Pat Noonan- Docents Taft Museum of Art

Lindsey Schloss-2nd Grade Teacher Oakdale Elementary School